

SIXTY CADETS TO GRADUATE

Over a Hundred Diplomas to Be Given at the V. P. I.

SOME ARE POST GRADUATES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BLACKSBURG, VA., June 3.—The commencement exercises of Virginia Polytechnic Institute will begin Friday, the 9th, and close Thursday, the 15th.

There are about seventy-five men in the senior class, of whom about sixty will graduate. Over a hundred diplomas will be given, however, as quite a number of cadets will take post-graduate degrees and several will take their diplomas who failed to win them last year.

Exercises will probably be held in the new chapel, a large stone structure with a seating capacity of about 2,500, which is nearly completed.

An excursion will be run to Blacksburg from Roanoke on the 12th, when the sham-battle and dress parade will take place. On that day, people from all the Experience of Society Women Demonstrates They Are a Thing of the Past.

Women will welcome with joy the news that a remedy has been discovered that not only removes freckles, but all blemishes of the complexion. It is the discovery of a famous specialist, and the most recent successful case is that of Mrs. B. F. White, of South Orange, N. J. She now possesses a beautiful complexion and is, naturally, so pleased that she is sending free to every woman who writes to her the prescription that really is the secret of a beautiful complexion. DINING ROOM DECORATIONS AT A FASHIONABLE WEDDING LAST WEEK.

country round begin to flock to Blacksburg in the morning. It is a gala day, looked forward to as second only to Christmas.

The juniors will open with the junior-senior german at 8 o'clock Friday night, and on Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock the celebration of the Lee Library Society will take place, followed by a hop at 9 o'clock.

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday at 11 o'clock by Rev. James D. Paxton, D. D., of Lynchburg, and at 8:30 in the evening there will be a sermon before the Y. M. C. A. by the same divine.

Monday's programme will open with the Virginia Polytechnic Institute Club german at 8:30 o'clock in the morning, followed by an address before the Literary Societies by W. R. Abbott, Esq., of Bellevue, Va., at 11 o'clock. A competitive drill at 3 o'clock, and a battalion dress parade at 5:30, will consume the afternoon, with the celebration of the Maury Literary Society at 8:30 in the evening. The senior promenade at 10 o'clock will bring the evening to a close.

Tuesday, the 13th, will be alumni day, and the most spectacular and delightful of all the pleasure-crowded days of commencement.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association will be held at 8:15 o'clock. The procession will form at 11 o'clock, and a quarter of an hour later will come the address before the Alumni Association.

The sham-battle will take place at three in the afternoon, and will be witnessed by a great throng of people drawn from many points.

At 8:30 in the evening the great campus will be beautifully illuminated; there will be fireworks, a band concert and a promenade of cadets, alumni, visitors, townspeople, and the many pretty girls that will add their bright presence to the joy of commencement.

The alumni banquet will take place at 9:30 P. M., and the V. P. I. German Club german at ten.

Wednesday will reflect the literary life of the great school, as did Tuesday the military side of the institution. It will be the day looked forward to by many through years of boyhood; looked back upon through years of mature life, as the day when the little roll of sheepskin which renounced all such of toll, so many lessons in self-control and discipline, was won, and marked a new epoch in achievement and self-development.

At ten o'clock the procession will move to the chapel, where, from 10:30 to 12 o'clock, will be heard essays of the graduates.

Then will come the conferring of degrees, after which Dr. O. A. Smith, Ph. D., of the University of North Carolina, will deliver the address before the graduating class.

The final ball at 10 o'clock in the evening will be in full dress uniform and will be a brilliant affair. This will mark the close of commencement, except for the "After All Hop" at 8:30 Tuesday evening.

Life will be strenuous during the V. P. I. finals, pleasures treading close on the heels of pleasure. But youth and beauty tread the path of joy with tireless feet, and the wise and meet that the goal of student-hood would be made as attractive and joyous as possible.

Great crowds are expected at Blacksburg, and those who have not as yet engaged board are having trouble in procuring a stopping place.

The students of the graduating class come from four States—Virginia, West Virginia, California and North Carolina, and from twelve representative States—Alton Forrest Yeaton, Alfred Randolph Wilson, Lawrence Stern, William Wythe Wingo, Charles Lunsford Lyon, James Garwood O'Keefe, William Neume Robinson, Ivanhoe Harrison Solater, John Douglas Huddins, William Davidson Kyle, Allen McGraw Harrelson and James Bolton.
